THANK YOU to John Riehle! John is a "Son of St. Matthew parish!" A graduate of the parish school. The School Sisters of Notre Dame impressed on their students the importance of "Giving Back" to one's parish. As a parish we are fortunate that John learned this lesson well! He has returned multiple times to serve as our parish administrator! He has helped to negotiate a new roof for the church, tenants for our school bldg. and guided us through all the guidelines to deal with Covid-19. John worked with Alan to make it possible to "stream" masses to all unable to attend. He will no doubt continue to watch these masses and perhaps send emails with personal suggestions! We hope so. No matter where life takes him, he will always be a part of St. Matthew's parish. He has helped to make the parish who we are today! So, we return to our roots and say to him – Auf Wiedersehen, Viel Glück! (Goodbye & Good Luck!)
