Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Weekly Reflection

Dear brothers and sisters,

In this Respect Life month of October, we give thanks to God for the precious gift of life and beg his wisdom on respecting life as we vote in November. This is not easy for any of us who feel uncomfortable with the candidates or are persuaded all different ways depending on who you listen to. Let's make sure we have formed our conscience correctly (according to the natural moral law, 10 Commandments and guidance of the Magisterium) in order to work for the common good in the voting booth. In the November election there are six non-negotiable moral issues: Abortion, Euthanasia or assisted suicide, Embryonic Stem Cell Research, Human Cloning, Homosexual Marriage, and Religious Liberty.

These moral issues should disqualify any candidate who holds, promotes or protects them of any Catholic vote. These things are always and everywhere wrong. Therefore, anyone who knowingly votes for a candidate who promotes such evils is a formal cooperator in these evils, and consequently commits grave or Mortal Sin. Moreover, not to vote for a candidate for whom there is a reasonable hope that such evils will be eradicated, or at least seriously limited, is also to be a formal cooperator in evil by omission, that is, not doing what we reasonably can do. In this month of the rosary, let our Blessed Mother bring our country to Jesus and his victory over sin and death.

God Bless- Father James
