Weekly Reflection

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This past Monday we had a meeting at Saint Michael to talk about the future of Saint Michael and its property. The Archbishop and his staff all gave brief presentations on some dimension of what could possibly happen were Saint Michael to close or merge with another parish. Susan Mulheron and Joseph Kueppers spoke about canon and civil law, Tom Mertens touched upon the finances, Jason Slattery, though absent, wrote in advance about the place of Catholic education, Deacon Steve Maier spoke about the recent process that Saint Michael leadership has been in with Saint Matthew and Our Lady of Guadalupe to look at the bigger situation of the three parishes, Father Charles Lachowitz emceed the meeting and fielded questions and, finally, Archbishop Hebda shared his thoughts throughout the meeting.

With members of all three parishes and the school present at the meeting I thought that the meeting itself was a success and although the difficult reality of Saint Michael weighed on our hearts, I felt hopeful as the meeting drew to a close. On behalf of Father Adams, the parish staff and parish leadership I wish to thank all of you who participated and who have prayed for it in advance or from a distance. The Lord Jesus has taken care of the people of Saint Michael for many years and certainly wishes to lead us to the heart of the Father as we look to move forward.

May God bless you,

-Father Andrew Brinkman
