Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Weekly Reflection

Today, we celebrate Priesthood Sunday. I offer the following prayer for all priests, and especially for Fr. Adams and Fr. Brinkman.

Divine Grace, which always heals that which is infirm and supplies that which is lacking has called our beloved brothers to sacred ministry. Let us pray that they be confirmed and strengthened with the grace of the Holy Spirit. Fill them with grace and counsel, that they may love you with all their hearts, all their minds, and all their strength. Grant them irreproachable conduct, steadfast faith, and good works so that they may help and guide your people with unselfish motivation. Grant them wisdom, let their minds be sober and watchful, so that they may be filled with works of healing and words of instruction. May they teach your people in meekness and serve you in holiness with an undivided mind and a willing soul. May they be the light of your only begotten Son so the word of your gospel may be spread and your name may be glorified in every creature. May they serve at your holy altar with pure hearts and good consciences. Grant that they may prosper in all your commandments and the keeping of your laws, so that they may be able to minister joyfully on the day of your coming. (from PriestSunday.org's website)

St. John Vianney, pray for us!

Deacon Gregg

Thank You St. Matthew's and St. Michael's Parishioners

The Appalachia Christmas Collection co-sponsored by St. Michael's Altar & Rosary Society and St. Matthew's Rosary/CCW was a huge success. The collection was limited to just one weekend this year, but we believe we collected as many items as we did last year in two weekends. Thanks to our very generous parishioners, your donations will help to bring Christmas joy to some of the poorest families in our country. We also collected $288.00 in cash which will be sent to Father Joseph Koury in Beattyville Kentucky to purchase additional needed items for the Christmas Store. Thank you again for your generosity.
